I won't, I won't back down
I know what I think is right, don't belittle me
I won't be wearing a frown
Won't weep over your attempts to insult me
Shut up, shut the fuck up
Because you've always been wrong and you know it
Won't waste my time here with you
I'll pound your mind into pieces, you fucking twit

Standing up for myself, and I am stronger than you
I'm not blinded by hate, so I know what to do

Back off, back the fuck off
I'll show the world who I am, and who you are
'Cause I want my space as well
I have the right to be me, not who you want
I can't, I can't see why
Why do you take out the lights when you see me?
'Cause when you take them all out
You take them out for yourself, can't you see it?

Standing up for myself, and I am stronger than you
I'm not blinded by hate, so I know what to do

I'm standing up for myself
Stronger than you
I'm standing up for myself
Stronger than you
