It's all been me, I just can't seem to find the strength

To carry on after all the doubt that failures left me

You tricked me to believe that I could fly

What a surprise it was when my hands hit the ground

Will these dreams ever come alive

Or is this my day to die?

Wipe away the blood and dry my eyes

Will these dreams ever come alive

Or is this my day to die?

Time and time again I'm fighting for my life

These four walls have kept out all the light

It gets so cold in here and the door is locked from the inside

Light bleeds through, years burn to rays of smoke

Every time I turn around the shadow's there to haunt me

(And I can't breathe) Lungs pressed against my heart

Will I get another chance to break through again?

Will these dreams ever come alive

Or is this my day to die?

Wipe away the blood and dry my eyes

Will these dreams ever come alive

Or is this my day to die?

Time and time again I'm fighting for my life

(Fighting for my life)

Will these dreams ever come alive

Or is this my day to die?

Will these dreams ever come alive

Or is this my day to die?

Will these dreams ever come alive

Or is this my day to die?

Will these dreams ever come alive

Or is this my day to die?

Will these dreams ever come alive
Or is this my day to die?
Time and time again I'm fighting for my life
Will these dreams ever come alive
Or is this my day to die?
Wipe away the blood and dry my eyes
Will these dreams ever come alive
Or is this my day to die?
Time and time again I'm fighting for my
life

Will these dreams ever come alive
Or is this my day to die?
Will these dreams ever come alive
Or is this my day to die?
Will these dreams ever come alive
Or is this my day to die?
