There is a rope in My Heart
That I connect to a rock
So when I think of You
There's nothing wrong

There is a rope in the Hearts
Of those who wait a single hand
So then I find You here
And I do not know

Wait
There is just one thing
Wait

There is a hope in My Heart

That I neglect every now -
And then I find You there
And then I know

What the hell did You expect
From those who wait a single hand?
They deconstruct their hopes
To find a way back

(For the storms will come with such a shine)
