Under the island, middle of a mountain
There is a big bad boomin' system
Blowin' speakers, woofers and tweeters
Amplifiers, melted wires

The party's exploded, the core is corroded
Under ground, the Puget sound
Causin' a shiftin' and a driftin'

Big black boom box, stuck in the hot rock
It's in there flowin', it's in there growin'
You don't believe me that this scenery
Could be a cold blooded killer

It's gonna blow, volcano
It's gonna blow, volcano
It's gonna blow, volcano

Now the island is shiftin', the plates are liftin'
The core is creamy, docile and dreamy
Stopped up and steamy

Happy campers, poop in their pampers
When the mountain become a fountain
White hot lava, molten magma
Supersonic, plate tectonics

Stereophonic, lava and tonic
The boom is bionic
Sony shut down, Magnavox meltdown
Ballistic breakdown

Hi-fi heatwave, lo-fi lava cave
That sulfur smells, Mt. St. Helens
Pompeii was yellin'

It's gonna blow, volcano
It's gonna blow, volcano
It's gonna blow, volcano
It's gonna blow, volcano
