Did you see the headlines?
Little things are blown to size and it's all 'round the world before you know We're living in a time with all the borders tripped and mined Days are gone when you could just be ordinary

Another patient on vacation gone for days without your medication

In the end
One decision that you make
There is a way to face it Lose your head Find a way to get it on cuz overnight everything can be so undone

Did you see the headlights?
A little pair of glowing eyes staring at you down the lonely road Did you dream you saw your life drawn across a sharpened knife?
Made to watch as all the blood runs cold
Are you strong enough to grow old?

Seize the moment now There's so little time before it's gone Redemption is at hand No matter what chemical you've taken on
And if you use another plan It's got to be the Genuine Come, if you want to come,
I want you to live like you want to live anyway
I want you to stay if you want to stay
One decision, one decision Is Genuine
