i walked out
i didn't want it anymore
i already had one foot out the door i was into moving
they were on the slower road it came down
about as plain as day to see the road signs i could recognize pointed right to me
i was into something daddy never really had made so many people
feel so badS
it was a
mean green season
when you're on top
you've got to show no mercy
make sure you believe you're
the reason
and everybody wants
a piece of the one
who gets it done
i held out
about as far as i could run tried to keep my pole position but i was into playing a little long in the sun
i fell back
till everything i had was gone i really thought i had it going on but now i'm on the outside with no one left to call at all
who'd swear how nobody ever wanna
see
me
fall
