every minute the angels come gonna take away another one i love is someone in a hurry to get things done?
put on your wings here comes another one look out

[chorus]

if you let me know what i can do i will surely try and help you we are related we cannot keep the box that we came in - gotta give it up nothing left to do here or talk about board up the windows we're gonna head on out now we know the reason for the undertow so we don't forget how deep the water goes

[chorus]

angel come down and stretch my skin inside out, upside down, and in gonna bind my little hands with my own deceit spin me around until my soul ends meet

[chorus]

we'll never need the roses once they're faded we cannot keep the box that we came in
