To everyone I could not meet
I'll spell it out in lyrics, simple and neat
To all of you who never knew this until now

It's flowing in fountains and I'm counting on moving
mountains

'Cause I know when You're near me
Everything will be alright
And I'm sure when You're close by
Everything will be alright

So if you wish to help yourself
Cry out, "Jesus!" with a capital "Help"
And tell your fear, "Disappear and fade away"

It's flowing in fountains and I'm counting on moving
mountains

'Cause I know when You're near me
Everything will be alright
And I'm sure when You're close by
Everything will be alright

You get me through that's what you do
You lit me up, I'm burning like Lightning up in the sky

Even if the sun refuses to shine
And stars played hideaway
That's alright, that's okay

To everyone I could not meet
I know it sounds a little sugary sweet
But how can I even try not to explain

It's flowing in fountains and I'm counting on moving
mountains

'Cause I know when You're near me
Everything will be alright
And I'm sure when You're close by

Everything will be alright

And I know when You're near me
Everything will be alright
And I'm sure when You're close by
Everything will be alright
