Another night is slipping by
And I'm wasted but
I don't wanna sleep
Bitter words never hurt
As much as the silence we keep
Why is it this way?
I just wanna say

I believe in love
I believe in you
I believe that you and I
Will find some healing
If we let love try
Just one more time

Once again with feeling

Take my hand, I understand
Out history can twist us inside
Try to hear through your fears
When I tell you that
I'm on your side
It's a constant fight
Keeping love alive

Forgiveness is where it all begins
Let's open our broken hearts again
