"You You You"

Out of the atmosphere, into the stratosphere
Over the milky way, into the new frontier
You take me to a place I've never been before
You turn my everyday into the evermore

All you do makes me feel alive
Like I'm flying through Starry skies, multiplied over and over again, a million times

You you you Yeah yeah yeah
This is turning into the best day that I've had

Love is a limousine, love is a trampoline
Love is a key to the club on the mezzanine
You make me feel in ways I've never felt before
I wanna be with you now and forevermore

Only you make me feel alive
Feels like something new Starry-eyed, world's collide over and over again, everytime

Into the ocean
Over the edge again
Into the atmosphere
Out where dreams begin
