Look at the sky, my friend. What do you see?
Do you imagine my face?
And do you live your life thinking of me,
Searching for love nights and days.

It may destroy you or carry you on,
Burning your soul from within. (baby...)
Sometimes it's hard, but you have to be strong.
And at the end you will win. (darling...)

I still believe in you. Our love – it is so fair.

I do not know your name, but I don 't care.
And even if you don't exist. (mmm)
There is a place for us and I will be there.
You are my fate. I can't resist. (oooh)

I will be waiting. Stay with me. But please, don't hide.
I will be waiting. Stay with me. By my side.
We'll be there - where days and dreams unite.

I cannot let you out, I can't let go.
You are so deep in my mind.
And I'm afraid that it's all that I know.
There's nothing else you can find.

Will you accept my rules or will you not?
Anyway, it's not your game. (babe...)
I'm gonna settle it just by a lot.
Sorry, I'm never the same. (darling...)

I still believe in you. All your magic 's real.
