Welcome to my Wonderland.
Be my guest with no confusion.
We have so much time to spend
And it's not a sweet illusion.

Please, don't get me wrong. So,
Look at me my friend, give me the answer.

What are you looking for inside my fantasies?
What is the secret?
When will you let me see? If I don't know the truth,
How will I keep it?

Whatever you have heard,
Whatever you have seen.
It's such a perfect world
I want you to get in.

Someday you will realize
That my love is your salvation.
You can't take it otherwise
Such a mystical creation.

Is this feeling real, or
Is it just a case for Doctor House?

What are you looking for... (repeat refrain)

I hear the sound of your voice in my soul.
So, will you stay, will you go – I don't know.
