Faith is failing
Thoughts come undone
Every single cell inside my body goes

Numb, just like it never did before
Just like it never did

My faith failing
Where'd it come from?
And every single cell inside my body is numb

Shout to anyone in the dark
Feel these words that create a spark
'Cause there's a

Fire that burns us
And we can't live without water, water, water
Face the flood 'cause it's going under
And only those without wings will die

People speak and sing and stand up
But words aren't enough to fill my cup
'Cause there's a

Fire that burns us
And we can't live without water, water, water, yea
Face the flood 'cause it's going under
And only those without wings will die
Looking up, how I'd love to join them
But I never learned to fly

I never learned to fly
(That's not the reason)
That I have never tried
(What you believe in)
I guess it seemed so tired
(What you believe in)

Face your own flood
Together we will

Drown, just like we never did before

Just like we never did

Face the flood 'cause it's going under
And only those without wings will die
Looking up, how I'd love to join them
