Don't know what I found there stuck in the muddle
Yeah it was the big muddle gulping around
Shiny redcoats bring it on Apprentice says, "Print, aren't you lucky enough to"
Caught in the rain, caught in the rain
Caught in the rain, caught in the rain

It's always those with a past to claim
And always known quite a few
The world is not spinnin' fast enough for you
Saw it on the street, seen out on the trees
That's right, you're cold enough to lie than
Caught in the rain, I'm caught in the rain
Caught in the rain, I'm caught in the rain
I'm caught in the rain

Hurry up, sunny day, shout it out I'll never wait
On Saturday maybe, I don't know
I'm not lying no, I'm caught in the rain
I'm caught in the rain, I'm caught in the rain
I'm caught in the rain, caught in the rain

Caught in the rain, caught in the rain
Caught in the rain, I'm caught in the rain
Caught in the rain, caught in the rain
