Did you call me baby
Did you say I was yours
Where's that ring that you gave me
Where's that home that was ours

But now that you're gone I'm better alone
And I'll find my way
I've been down too long and the sirens are gone
Can I call it a day
And lay my head and fall to sleep
The only sound is the rustle of the sheets

Did you say that you loved me
Did you hear me say it too
Did you hear my cry for mercy
Did you see me look just like a fool

But now that you're gone I'm better alone
And I'll find my way
I've been down too long and the sirens are gone
Can I call it a day
And lay my head and fall to sleep
The only sound is the rustle of the sheets
