Everyday, every moment I'm a ghost
Everyday, every moment I'm a ghost

The world is on fire, up in flames
And buildings are burning where children play
Don't ask me a question, I won't tell you all my lies
You want me to fool you while you look me in the eyes

Everyday I'm fading more into a ghost
Barricades are closing off where I can go
Closing in and pushing me far away
Everyday and every moment I'm a ghost

Praying to altars, praying for faith
A man with a gun has lost his way
There's ash in the air and it's cold outside
And I've lost all my places to hide

Everyday I'm fading more into a ghost
Barricades are closing off where I can go
Closing in and pushing me far away
Everyday, every moment I'm a ghost

Everyday I'm fading more into a ghost
Barricades are closing off where I can go
Closing in and pushing me far away
Everyday, every moment I'm a ghost
Everyday, every moment I'm a ghost
