Would you take my hand tonight?
I need a place to hide
If I crept inside your room
Would you say that it's you, that I want, that I'd die for
That it's you, that I need, that I wait for?

Hoping a tidal wave will come and sweep us all away
And strand me, nothing about this place would keep us
down
And tidal waves will surround you
And tidal waves will surround you

If I begged you one last time
Would you cover me
If I told you all my lies?
Would you say that it's you, that I want, that I'd die for
That it's you, that I need, that I wait for?

Hoping a tidal wave will come and sweep us all away
And strand me, nothing about this place would keep us
down
And tidal waves will surround you
And tidal waves will surround you

Are you waiting for the sight of the smoke, the sight of fire?
Are you waiting for me?
And tidal waves will surround

Hoping a tidal wave will come and sweep us all away
And strand me, nothing about this place would keep us
down
And tidal waves will surround you
And tidal waves will surround you
Yeah
Surround you, yeah
Yeah
Yeah
