Make me believe...
In what you have to say.
I'm done with you

We'll learn to fly with broken wings
And leave tonight don't fall asleep

A dream led you to me
Let's take this slowly
I'll light this match and burn this place down
To the ground

I'm still the same boy
You used to know
I'm just a little older

We'll learn to fly with broken wings
And leave tonight don't fall asleep
I've been searching for a thousand days
Climbing mountains hoping you're okay

You're like a weight that's pulling me down
To the bottom of the ocean
It's getting darker
Will you leave me here to drown?

The only truth you'll find
Is in my words
My heart will lie
Till it's over

My heart will lie...

Where do we go from here when all you have is yourself
And you live in fear?
You took a part of me
And I want it back

This is the end of us

I Trusted what you said...

A frozen frame that never changes

I have these dreams-my wings are burning
You're throwing us away...
