"Looking For Perfect"

Your best trust days are the days you don't try,
Ain't it funny?
Or fighting with things and gifts that money can't buy.
So busy looking for the brightest star in the sky,
But you didn't notice,
The only one you should see just passed you by.
And ain't it ironic that?

I only find you
When I stop looking for perfect,
When I stop looking for perfect.
I only find you
When I stop looking for perfect,
So I stop looking for perfect,
Cause even perfect ain't perfect.
Why would you wanna be perfect?
Nobody's perfect
Since we're perfectly good.
