I feel you staring down at me
And I must admit I'm flyin' You take my hand and quietly whisper the words I'm thinking...

"Baby lets go for a ride inside the night and Let the wind swim through your hair, yeah yeah Cause looking in your eyes time passes by as fast as it can go
We could be movin real slow to the radio
With all the lights on low
I know this little place baby, not far away...Maybe we
No one has to know... no no no"

I've dreamed a thousand nights away
Of you and your arms around me
You whispered softly, its ok
And time would suspend inside me

"Baby lets go for a ride inside the night and Let my hands run through your hair, yeah yeah
Cause looking in your eyes time passes by as fast as it
We could be movin real slow to the radio
With all the lights on low
I know this little place baby, not far away...maybe we
No one has to know...no no no"

Sometimes I take so much for granted, It's easy to do
All that I want is to stand hand in hand with you, oh you

Yeah, looking in your eyes time passes by as fast as it
We could be moving real slow to the radio
With all the lights on low
I know this little place baby, not far away... maybe we
no one has to know...no no no

no one has to know...no no no one has to know
