Step inside the sound of something there for you to find,
Leave your bag of worries far behind you,
Turning all around you can't contain yourself inside,
So you move outside the lines that once define you, yeah
Symphonys and shadows steal the silence from your head,
Like a ship thats taken by the sea,
Written words are seldom heard as often as they're said,
So the only way to have your say is screaming,

Why the stars in the night
The sound got your sight,
Don't fight the way you feel inside,
It's more than you need,
You're safe here with me,
All starts the moment you believe

Wrapping around you feel their fingers movin through your soul,
Holding tight to everything they see,
So you take your breath and do your best to regain your control,
When you find out it's from you, you must be free..

Why the stars in the night
The sound got your sight,
Don't fight the way you feel inside,
It's more than you need,
You're safe here with me,
All starts the moment you believe

Why the stars in the night
The sound got your sight,
Don't fight the way you feel inside,
It's more than you need,
You're safe here with me,
All starts the moment you believe
