When the days are getting longer
And the people come out on the streets at night
I'll be among the starry eyes
I'll be among the wishful side
I'll be among the fools forever fantasizing

(When will I see you?)
Summertime would be perfect
(When will I see you?)
It'll be a long summertime

(When will I see you?)
Endless nights of love could be us
(When will I see you?)

When the nights are getting warmer
And the dawn comes in on the wings of the song
I'll be among the hopeful few
I'll be among the morning dew
I'll be among everything new

(When will I see you?)
Summertime would be perfect
(When will I see you?)
There'll be no one around

(When will I see you?)
Endless nights of love could be us
(When will I see you?)

Too mend the impossible, everyone will be free
We'll walk down the avenue opening, opening

When the days are getting longer
The people come out on the streets at night
I'll be the one who knows your name
I'll be the one who plays the game
I'll be the one, again and again and again
Again and again and again

(When will I see you?)
Summertime would be just perfect

(When will I see you?)

Be a long summertime

(When will I see you?)

Endless night of love could be us

(When will I see you?)

Too mend the impossible, everyone will be free

Too mend the impossible, everyone will be free
