you yell out in defiance you're backed up against the wall they're up there clutching their guns man and it makes you feel real small so cuss, spit, throw bottles broken glass

but it ends with handcuffs on you hands you run around and spray paint graffiti on everybody's wall you think that's bitchin man that ain't nothing at all!

so you can cuss, spit, throw bottles
broken glass
but it ends with a swift kick to your ass

you're backed up against them walls they're up there clutching their guns man

broken glass
but it ends with the handcuffs on your hands
