when it first happened
it was nice it was sweet now it's getting older and we're finding that it's not so sweet smiles growing cold perfumes getting stale

i can see it in your eyes
all the lies and alibis

happiness together honey there's just no way our love has seen much better days it's over now
yes it's gone
no one's at fault
no one's wrong
