Skin of oyster white, cascading flaxen hair
Always sought but never found
Green eyes shing bright with captivating stare
Feel the shaking of the ground, she'll astound

Just open your mind
And open your heart
Llagaeran will hear

She can heal you from a thousand different ills
Never seeking a reward
With her potions gathered high amongst the hills
Anf her softly chanted words
You'll be cured

Her power will never fail
Not while her passions & her sympathies
Prevail
The secret never dies
Look for the woman with kindness in her eyes
Llagaeran will hear

Open your mind, see what you find
Open your eyes, you'll be surprised
Just open your eyes
