Hey don't look at me like that You cut me down you stare me down
You feel like picking on somebody today cut me down, you knock me down
But I'm not afraid of you anymore and I'm not running from you anymore
I stand taller than the skyline, a thousand stories above
the fall line
And you could never, ever, shake me
You can hurt me but you wont brake me Words can feel like weapons, today I am bullet proof I am on to you
I wear my armor beneath my skin it is bullet proof because of you
And I am stronger than you think I am
And maybe one day you'll understand Cause I am taller than the skyline, a thousand sotries above the fall line
And you can never, ever, shake me
You can hurt me but you wont brake me
So walk a mile in my shoes
There is no one (not audible)
I'm not that different from you My light shines brighter than ever before I stand taller than the skyline, a thousand stories about
the fall line
You can never, ever, shake me
I stand taller than the skyline, a thousand stories above
the fall line
And you can never, ever, shake me
You can hurt me but you can never brake me
No way way oh skyline
A thousand stories
Skyline
No way way
Skyline
No way way
A thousand stories
No way way oh skyline
Hey don't look at me like that you cut me down you stare me down
