"Hour Of Need"

Time was running out for me, I could see my destiny
Running, fading, to the distance I was jaded
You're running out on me, in my hour of need
My hour of need, splits the dead wood from the tree
I'm creating the ground is waitingâ€¦
Will you grow with me, will you grow with me
Will you grow with me, will you grow with me
Will you grow with me, will you grow
Or will you quote self-fulfilling prophecies

And it's slipping through my fingers like a desert in the rain
In my hour of need
I'm gonna mix up my emotions, dry my soul again
In my hour of need
It's slipping through my hands, dripping right through my nails,
Mmm, bleeding on the sand, succeeding where I failed
Succeeding where I failedâ€¦

But where is all my money, where is all my energy Spending, saving all the time I could be making Where is my energy, in my hour of need
My hour of need, is the river to the sea
Now I'm craving the water's waitingâ€¦
Will you bathe with me, will you bathe with me
Will you bathe with will you bathe with me
Will you bathe with me, will you bathe with me
Will you bathe or will you save yourself from coming clean

And it's slipping through my fingers like a desert in the rain
In my hour of need
I'm gonna mix up my emotions, dry my soul again
In my hour of need
Slipping through my hands, dripping right through my nails,
Mmm, bleeding on the sand
Succeeding where I failed...
