I'm a man on a mission
To be kissing you
I need a section of protection
To keep me safe all the way through
I'm a stranger in a strange land
Eiffel Tower blue

Policy of avoidance
Avoiding the truth
While my pockets full up
I see change is running loose
Travel on a euro train
Eiffel Tower blue

Do you know what I'm asking
I got no trick questions for you
Such a touchy subject
Will you let me touch you
Cross the language barrier
Eiffel Tower blue

Do you know the hour
I haven't the slightest clue
I know I'm living on borrowed time
And some day I'll pay it back to you
You're my banker and my account is due
Still I want to thank you
For doing what you do
I'd like to paint you
Eiffel Tower Blue
