I look into the mirror, the reflection lie
I feel a rising fear, I seek a different I
When I look at myself I know where to begin
Give me the strength to change the enemy within

Give me the courage to expand my point of view
Teach me to cope with the results from what I do
I found that cruelty has got a human heart
Ever since innocence was ripped and torn apart

I pledge my heart to serve the truth
(I pledge my heart to serve the truth)
I'll stay the course forever
All in the name of love

Pay my allegiance to the new
(Pay my allegiance to the new)
Carry the torch together
All in the name of love

I can't erase my past, I cannot clean the sway
Nor change the damage done, my fortune and my fate
But I can change direction, choose another path
And may the strength of heaven resurrect me back

I pledge my heart to serve the truth
(Pay my allegiance to the new)
I'll stay the course forever
All in the name of, all in the name of love

The dark and light
The wrong and the right
The essence of mankind
The pros and the cons
The moon and the sun
The eclipse of the human mind

I pledge my heart to serve the truth
(I pledge my heart to serve the truth)
I'll stay the course forever
All in the name of love

Pay my allegiance to the new
(Pay my allegiance to the new)
Carry the torch together
All in the name of love (love, love...)
