They live in the streets outside the walls left out in the cold
there's nowhere to sleep they've taken the fall into the hole
They grew up with violence they learned how to hate and learned how to fear they searched for silence before it was too late before it disappeared
Chorus:
Where is the future
where is the past the answer's unknown but the child of tomorrow don't know where he is or where he shall go they are the children of sorrow they are the children of tomorrow And all their illusions all of their dreams

are all gone so far they live with confusion don't know what it means don't know who they are So rise all you children come back to life

you're wasting your time

'cause you are the future you are not left behind Chorus
