Running around the corridors blood on the walls blood on the floors and you brain is full of fear evil laughs and dreadful cries nowhere to run nowhere to hide seems like death is standing near

Chorus:

Nowhere to run

what the hell is going on There's a killer behind your back just waiting for attack and your heart is breathing fast your body's shaking, you're going insane something's going on in your brain death will overtake you at last

The night is over, the dawn is breaking all night long you have been waiting it's clearing up inside your head you think youã, 're safe, youã, 're feeling high but youã, 're wrong Iã, 'll tell you why nobody escapes the castle of death

Chorus
