Visit "Poisoned Pleasures" on MotoLyrics.com

I see you on the street and while your eyes are bleeding
I see you shake his hand while buying dreams for cash
You need that trip
You'd die for it
You're of the ground now
You feel that rush
That instant high
Poisoned pleasures
Chemical treasures inside
Disease you mislead you and finally defeats you
Change your behaviour
It will enslave you for life

Blinds you divides and desensitize you
You might as well just face that you're addicted to it
And everyone can see your candle's burning low
It runs your life
Kills your pride
Steals your money
You need that stuff
The wings to fly
CHORUS
Kill yourself to live
Every pleasure has its price
Life is what you give away
