You are a burnin' heart
A diamond among the pearls
In an ice cold world
And your appearance make me feel like I'm in ecstasy
You put a spell on me

When you're here
I feel the heat
Whenever you're near
I feel complete, yeah oh oh...

I sense the scent of you
I smell that sweet perfume
When you walk in the room
You are the kind of drug
I get addicted to
I've got the best of you

So come on
I wanna be with you
All night long
Do what lovers do, hey...

It's such a rush, you're such a thrill
You lit my lust and I'm in for the kill
The queen of hearts, the perfect prey
You're a shinin' star, girl you blow me away

Ooh, girl you blow me away...

You got that magic touch
You've got that glowin' spark
You lighten up the dark
The goddess of my dream
You're my adrenalin
You are the sweetest thing

I get wild
I'm animal
Hungry like a child
For you girl, hey...

It's such a rush, you're such a thrill
You lit my lust and I'm in for the kill
The queen of hearts, the perfect prey
You're a shinin' star, girl you blow me away

Love embrace me, fly me
Take me to cloud nine
Hold me, touch me, kiss me
Til the end of time...

Hey...

It's such a rush, you're such a thrill
You lit my lust and I'm in for the kill
The queen of hearts, the perfect prey
You're a shinin' star, girl you blow me away

It's such a rush (it's such a rush), you're such a thrill
(you're such a thrill)
You lit my lust and I'm in for the kill
The queen of hearts, the perfect prey (the perfect prey)
You're a shinin' star, girl you blow me away

Girl you blow me away...
Ooh yeah...
