A love explosion
One big bang
Like a supernova
One outstanding date with her

Just one flash
And I was spellbound
Love came crashing right into my world

But now she says she's leaving me that love ain't what it used to be
But I won't let go
I can't let go

I wouldn't miss you for the world
I wouldn't miss one day without you
I couldn't live without you girl
I wouldn't miss the things that we do
And nothing in this world could come between
The queen of all my dreams

And all that glitter
All that grace
No such love would come my way
Without you

And girl you're all that matters to me no broken hearts or shattered dreams won't do us no good

Now all want is high romance
I've had my share of one night stands
But it's over now
It's all over now

[Chorus:]

And no one in this world could play your part
You had my heart held hostage from the start

Let me cut down to the bone
Well It's much to my regret
I was the first to cast the stone

Now why can't you forget

She's my woman

She's my fire

Everything to me

[CHORUS]
