I can't take it anymore, take it all away from me
I can't live this life no more, somebody please come save me!
Do everything you can to stop me, Because I can't stop myself
Take me out before it's too late, before the whole world
goes to Hell

Maybe I'm not the person that you expected me to be Maybe, there's a deadly monster, locked up deep
inside of me
Maybe It is raging to be released, maybe It wants to escape
Maybe I need to get out and run far away from this place

Angry and rage deep inside me, I can't even contain myself Carnal instincts coming out, The taste of blood is in my mouth Morbid thoughts race through my mind, my eyesight is turning red Be warned all for I am coming, cross with me and you'll end up dead
I'm a killer can't you see, it was truly never expected But now you see who I really am, The sad silence of realization
I'm so sorry to disappoint, but these are the burdens that I have I'm so sorry to end your life, but my dark hunger has reached it's limit

Maybe I'm not the person that you expected me to be
Maybe, there's a deadly monster, locked up deep
inside of me
Maybe It is raging to be released, maybe It wants to
escape
Maybe I need to get out and run far away from this

I have turned into that person, that I never meant to be

I hate the way you look when you keep looking at me I have turned into a big mess, there's a madman in my brain

And what you say is the trigger that drives me insane
It's not all my fault, that the bloody reflection fits me Maybe the outside world, has finally taken it's toll on me

I'm not screwed right in the head, I now accept this fate

And if you cannot stop me, the monster inside of me will take

Maybe, there's a deadly monster, locked up deep
inside of me

Maybe It is raging to be released, maybe It wants to

Maybe I need to get out and run far away from this
place

Interlude

(IT KEEPS ME UP!)

I can't take it anymore, take it all away from me
I can't live this life no more, somebody please come
save me!

Do everything you can to stop me, Because I can't
stop myself

Take me out before it's too late, before the whole world
goes to Hell

Maybe, there's a deadly monster, locked up deep
inside of me

Maybe It is raging to be released, maybe It wants to

place
