I'm singing this song for everybody who has a name
I'm singing this song for the world that has gone
Insane
Singing this song for me

Singing this song for you
Really wish I could see the face I'm singing this to Singing this song for the girl next door
For the friend that live 9000 miles away
For the kid that never learns to play
The man who fights for his country/flag every day
For the leaders, who still don't know what to say
And who can I talk to
When it all just doesn't add up
Who can I believe when it all
Get's too rough

I'm singing this song with for better half of me
Singing this song for the believers that pray to be
For all the angels that will never come to some of us
For the homeless mother who had to give her little baby
Up

And who can I talk to
When the world just shuts up
Who can I believe when it all
Get's lost

Too much to sing for
I still don't feel the satisfaction I need
Can anybody hear me now
Am I only singing this for me

I'm singing this song cause it's the only thing that I
Can
Singing this song cause it's just about everything I am
I am homeless
I am a soldier I'm a kid
I'm the girl next door I'm all this
