I remember how it ended too soon
My heads still spinning Im alone in my room
Cant forget ya, don't you know that it's tough
My heads still aching and the pain is too much
Its your touch it's your kiss
Every night that I miss
When the stars shine above
That's when I miss your love
Oh baby
Chorus
Staring at the moonlight just another lonely night
Wishing you were back in my arms
Underneath the starlight dreaming of another time
Back when your sweet love was mine
Im still hoping, you walk back into my life
And show me heaven make everything right
Do you feel it, is it hard to let go
Im still in love I thought you should know
Its your touch it's your kiss
Every night that I miss
I know I should move on
Cant believe that you're gone
Oh baby
Chorus
Staring at the moonlight just another lonely night
Wishing you were back in my arms
Underneath the starlight dreaming of another time
Back when your sweet love was mine
And whatever I do, I keep thinking it over and over
Imagine you're close to me now
Are you feeling it too
Wishing you were here with me, here with me
Way back when our hearts were together
You said that you'd stay in my life forever
You told me wed last for all time
Back when your sweet love was mine
Chorus
Staring at the moonlight just another lonely night
Wishing you were back in my arms
Underneath the starlight dreaming of another time
Back when your sweet love was mine

Chorus

Staring at the moonlight just another lonely night
Wishing you were back in my arms
Underneath the starlight dreaming of another time
Back when your sweet love was mine
