Falling for you is never the issue
It's finding time with all these things to do
If you wait for me then I'll wait for you
Cause I was born to die with you
I was born to die with you.
I met you at a wedding
Now think that I'm in love
Oh god, I can't stop staring
I just can't get enough
I got it bad, too bad for you
You got me spun and I'll spring too soon.
When I'm on the road
And I need you babe
It's always worth the wait
When I get home, Imma rock you babe
You want me in the golden days
Falling for you is never the issue
It's finding time with all these things to do
If you wait for me then I'll wait for you
Cause I was born to die with you
I was born to die with you

You met me when I was younger
I was a little bit stupid then
But one day I got smarter
They do to take the stand
Falling in love ain't hard to do
But keeping in touch takes work, my boo.
When I'm on the road
And I need you babe
It's always worth the wait
When I get home, Imma rock you babe
You want me in the golden days
Falling for you is never the issue
It's finding time with all these things to do
If you wait for me then I'll wait for you
Cause I was born to die with you
I was born to die with you
I'm leaving in the morning
But I want to keep you coming on
Out of wedlock loving
Like our four fathers done it
Hold you tight, keep
Holding you tight, yeah
Hold you tight, keep
Holding you tight
Yeah

Falling for you is never the issue

It's finding time with all these things to do

If you wait for me then I'll wait for you

Cause I was born to die with you

I was born to die with you.
