You've got fears baby you got doubts
What ever it is I can love it out
Just put your love and trust in me
Paradise could be a reality

I can tell by the tears on your face
I know where you've been
But i'm here to change all of that
And let the sun shine in

(Chorus)

Love is what you make of it
Giving and taking it
Whatever your heart says love is
I'll be everything you need
You can be sure that's what my love is

I've got something better, I've got a plan
To be your lover to be a woman
It could be this it could be that
I'll solve your problem I can wear the hat

I can tell by the tears on your face
I know where you've been
But i'm here to change all of that
And let the sun shine in

(Chorus)

Love is what you make of it
Giving and taking it
Whatever your heart says love is
I'll be everything you need
You can be sure that's what my love is

This time it's real just beleive it
Open up your heart and receive it
We can have it all together
Forever and ever forever baby

(Chorus)

Love is what you make of it

Giving and taking it
Whatever your heart says love is
I'll be everything you need
You can be sure that's what my love is x3
