All light up, all light up All light up, all light up All light up, all light up All light up, all light up

Revolution sixty-nine, I was there, it felt fine

Paris riots, sixty-eight Dropped a tab and got there late

All light up, all light up

Charlie Manson, drugged on hate Took the life of fair Sharon Tate

Martin Luther, human rights Got spurted through the night

All light up, all light up

All light up, all light up All light up, all light up

Summer concert, high on grass Never knew it wouldn't last

Watch the kids in Vietnam Lightin' up for Uncle Sam

All light up, all light up All light up, all light up

All light up, all light up All light up, all light up All light up, all light up All light up, all light up All light up, all light up All light up, all light up All light up, all light up All light up, all light up All light up, light up
