New York
Grey and sorrow there to meet her
Night sky hangs around to greet her

She throws down
Lifeline of kisses
Anchored to the ground
Balloon descending

Then I see balloon is burning
Turning round, burning

This balloon, burning
This balloon, burning
This balloon, burning
This balloon, burning

Fragments of my life
Falling the sky on fire
All consuming

Then I see balloon is burning
Turning round, burning

This balloon, burning
This balloon, burning
This balloon, burning
This balloon, burning
