A few good reasons to stay on the line you're a friend
Mine, you'd better listen to me what I say and I will Make you a better day. A few good reasons to open your Eyes to face your fears and lies, it's your own decision You're walking away away from better day. 'cause I can't T turn away when I see you falling day by day
I can't prevent if you decide to play this game but don't Go too far when I can feel the same Don't wonder when they're gone and no one is here to Blame, don't go too far when I won't be the same. Don't Go too far, don't go too far!

It's your own direction you're going away, nobody forces
You, you don't have to stay
I can't turn away when I see you falling day by day
