I hate the town where the kids are falling down,
The place they used to go I wanna be around,
Feels good when I'm in the crowd and the music is so
Loud,
But suddenly a punch from behind will shake the ground.

They got no right to be the cause of a fight
All I wanna say is hold on and forget the might.
They got no right to be the cause of a fight.
I would like to know what for they started to fright.

But then I'm in the fight with two monkeys by my side,
I don't know what to do and I don't know where to hide,
I tried to scream but nobody hears the shout,
Or no one really cares what the screaming is about.

They got no right to be the cause of a fight
All I wanna say is hold on forget the might,
They got no right to be the cause of a fight
I would like to know what for they started to fright.

Hold on don't fight, hold on don't fight...

Figure it out figure it out
I would like to know where is the place I dream about,
Figure it out how to get out
I would like to know what a dream's about.

I feel crazy when I wake up I have been walking in my Sleep, I feel crazy but I'm ready to get the point my First coffee and a joint.
