"Loser"

I'm so crazy, fat and lazy,
The world's biggest liar, the face of paranoia.
Ladies and misters, brothers and sisters,
I don't even know you, so better keep the distance.

'Cause I'm your loser baby, I'm your loser baby.

What's the main reason I lost my own vision,
In front of me pieces of broken television.
I used to have diet, my job and no more riot.
Big house, cars, my dog, wife and a child.

But I'm your loser baby, I'm your loser baby.
It's my decision to sit on my chair, I see you get up but
I think I don't care.
But I'm your loser baby, I'm your loser baby.

I'm your loser, watch me I'm coming up, coming on and on.
I refuse to be sexy and smart enough.

Hurry up and say goodbye, it's not time to cry.
All my life I'm just boring you, such a waste of time. 2x

I'm your loser baby, I'm your loser baby.
