Speak out the secret combination
What is the difference
Between mine and your creation
No doubt got my consideration
But nobody's perfect,
Nobody's perfect at all

Sweet perfection
With Your head right through the wall
Sweet perfection
Nothing can stop You at all

Will You ever try to understand that
We're so different, but pretty much the same
That's what We are

Sweet perfection

It makes You sober when You're crossing the line
When You feel so close to the other side
There must be something You can not resign

Sweet perfection
With Your head right through the wall
Sweet perfection
Nothing can stop You at all

Will You ever try to understand that
We're so different, but pretty much the same
That's what We are
We all make mistakes in the search for perfection
Aaah... That's what we are

Aaah... That's what we are
Searching for perfection
Isn't that what We are

Aaah... That's what we are
Searching for perfection
Is it that what We are
