Please wake me up
I'm still dreaming
Just get me out
Of my insanity

Everybody's out
I'm still creeping
It makes me wanna
Sleep my life awake

Wake me up
With a smile on your face
So I can remember when I'm down
And noone is with me for miles around
Wake me up
Like a beautiful morning outside my window
Because I'm not going down
I'm not going back down to drown

Please pick me up
When you come around
Let me escape the holy ground
I just wanna be myself again

Only you can wake me up
You are the only reason
Why I don't give up
Only you can wake me up my friend

Wake me up
With a smile on your face
So I can remember when I'm down
And noone is with me for miles around
Wake me up
Like a beautiful morning outside my window
Because I'm not going down
I'm not going back down to drown
