When i know no place to be.
I really must not stay.
In a time when i can't find myself.
Looking back on all the times.
With memories we cry.
I fade into the past now i am not real.
Hey you find out.
Find out you don't know.
What i would do.
No solution.
The woods are burning.
And i lose touch.
Sometimes what is right seems wrong.
And i can't stop what was to come.
I hope it's not just in my head.
And i can't believe my world.
I threw away the girl.
That was suitable for my life.
But decadence it takes it's toll.
And time is our control.
I fade into the past now i am not real.
