Intro

OOooOOh No

It's your boy willie Mo jr. and I jst wanna talk to my ladies for a min,

You kno a lot of people ask for what I look for in a woman

And for my men Imma start leting ya'll kno what you need to be lookin for in a woman

1st Verse:

I don't really care about your name brands

Juicy, coach and gucci or your louie bags

It aint the size of your waist or how you fit pants,

Not the style of your hair or how you make cash,

It aint the make up you wear to your pretty face,

Or the workout you do to try to stay in shape,

Although it's good it's not the love we made,

Lady let me tell you what it is...

Chrous:

When God made you

(Oh when god made you ladies)

He made an angel

(I kno it might sound crazy but this my lady)

The way that you stay, when I walked away, when we go thru rough times you say lets pray

When I misbehave you hold no grudge because you are saved you show me love yeah

I don't even care about your friend girls,

Stacy Gina Karla or that one girl

I hear u minister to em like that aint it girl,

If they don't get you forget it then you just pray for em

2nd Verse:

So I don't even care about how the food taste,

How you wash dishes, clean up or how the beds made,

See every thing I said I do appreciate,

But see your spirit ya hear me it make me so amazed,,

Your talk
Your walk
Your style
Your dress
I'm impressed but that really don't matter to me I know that might sound crazy but that's my type of lady
Your smile
Your eyes don't lie
Your soul
Your spirit,
That's all that matters to me,
(It might sound crazy)

Chrous:

When God made you
(Oh when god made you ladies)
He made an angel
(I kno it might sound crazy but this my lady)
The way that you say, when I walked away, when we go
thru rough times you say lets pray
When I misbehave you hold no grudge because you
are saved you show me love yeah
When God made you
(Oh when god made you ladies)
He made an angel
(I kno it might sound crazy but this my lady)
The way that you say, when I walked away, when we go
thru rough times you say lets pray
When I misbehave you hold no grudge because you
are saved you show me love yeah
