[Sarah Jones]

Why must you be unfaithful? For women..

Men, you shouldn't listen to your selfish heart

It doesn't really have a brain

Besides keepin you alive, it's existence is in vain

And how could I be so mean, and say your heart has no place?

Because mortal men fall in love again as fast as they change their face

I may be cruel, but think awhile about the hearts that you have broken and match that, with the empty vows and broken promises you've spoken

Now I'm not saying females are perfect cause we know, it's not true

But why must you be unfaithful

if her heart is true to you?
