[1] joy could never show how much he loves me...
And peace cannot explain... how much he cares...
It's hard to imagine... it seems impossible...
That he could love someone... like me...

He gave... all he had for my freedom...
And when it was complete... I had the choice...
I could be forgiven... for every thing...
All I had to do... was believe...

[Cho:] and he took my sin away...
He showed me a brand new way...
The moment I gave... my life to him...
He took my sin away...

Modulation: tenor lead starts here

[2] sometimes... life gets rough around the edges...
And my heart... may become a little cold...
I have a loving father... he's always there...
Just waiting for my call to come back home...

I wish that I would never stray away...
And I'll try never to drift away again...
I'm not bound by sin... I shouldn't walk therein...
I must keep my eyes on the lord...

Hard modulation

[Cho:] he took my sin away...
He showed me a brand new way...
The moment I gave... my life to him...
He took my sin...

[Tag:] he took my sin...
He took my sin away...
Away...
